ANNAN OLD – Ongoing Appeals

Stamp Appeal. Project 2025 -2026 Support of the Al Ahli Arab Hospital in Gaza.

The Al Ahli Arab Hospital in Northern Gaza has been in operation since 1882. It is owned and run today by the Anglican Diocese of Jerusalem, a partner Church of the Church of Scotland. The hospital is the only Christian hospital in the Gaza Strip and Gaza's only cancer hospital. It normally handles around 300 surgeries and 600 radiological and a total of 3,000 outpatient visits per month. It is supported by international charities such as Embrace the Middle East. In times of calm during the occupation of Gaza, Al Ahli Hospital runs as any normal hospital with varying departments and an Accident and Emergency dealing with the usual day to day ailments of a population.

Since the beginning of the conflict in Gaza in October 2023, the Al Ahli Anglican Hospital has conducted emergency operations 24 hours per day, operating on 30-35 people per day.

Despite all, and through all the bombing, the hospital continued to serve the population in whatever way they could with the small resources they had, with staff working hours under difficult conditions. The team at the Al Ahli hospital continue to schedule its staff to ensure that the hospital is accessible 24 hours a day. To enable the Ahli to respond to the increasing need at this time, there continues to be an urgent need of medications and other resources for emergency response.

The hospital has been significantly damaged by the war and will require substantial funding to ensure buildings are once again brought up to standard and there will also be the need for new medical infrastructure which has been damaged.

This hospital was badly damaged when bombed recently.

Bible Readings for the week to come .....

Sunday	30th	Psalm 34
Monday	1st	Psalm 24
Tuesday	2nd	Matthew 24	Verses	1-28
Wednesday	3rd	Matthew 24	Verses	29-51
Thursday	4th	Matthew 25	Verses	1-30
Friday	5th	Matthew 25	Verses	31-46
Saturday	6th	Jeremiah 31	Verses	1-14

God it was who said to Abraham,

'Pack your bags and travel on!'

God it was who said to Sarah,

'Smile and soon you'll bear a son!'

Travelling folk and aged mothers

Wandering when they thought they'd done –

This is how God calls his people,

Losing all because of One.

God it was who said to Moses.

'Save my people, part the sea!'

God it was who said to Miriam,

'Sing and dance to show you're free!'

Shepherd-saints and tambourinists

Doing what he knew they could –

This is how God calls his people,

Liberating what they should.

God it was who said to Joseph,

'Down your tools and take your wife!'

God it was who said to Mary,

'In your womb I'll start my life!'

Carpenter and country maiden

Leaving town and trade and skills –

This is how God calls his people,

Moving them through what he wills.

Christ it was who said to Matthew,

'Leave your books and follow me!'

Christ is was who said to Martha,

'Listen first, then make the tea!'

Civil servants and housekeepers,

Changing places at a cost –

This is how Christ calls disciples,

Finding those he knew were lost.

In this crowd of common people,

Once unknown, whom we revere,

God calls us to share his purpose

Starting now and starting here.

So we celebrate his calling,

So we prize and praise his choice,

As we pray that through this company

God will act and raise his voice.

Not the powerful, not the privileged.

Not the powerful, not the privileged,
not the famous in the land,
but the no-ones and the needy were the first to hold God's hand.

Not a well-established family with an heirloom christening shawl, but a homeless, wandering couple parented the Lord of All.

Not, at first, to little children,
nor to those whose faith burned bright,
but to adults, stalled in darkness,
angels brought God's love and light.

God, determined to be different from the standards we think best,
in God's choice of friends and family,
lets forgotten folk be blessed.

Not obsessed by our achievements,
worldly wealth or family tree,
may we, in and with God's chosen,
find our fondest pedigree.
